VOLUME 28—NUMBER 1

ELLENSBURG, WASH. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1954

DAD'S DAY OFFICIALS make last minute preparations for the weekend's festivities. Here Dorothy Barich and Jack Turner, general co-chairmen for the event and Chuck Hazen, right, toastmaster for the banquet, discuss some of the plans for the banquet which will be held in the Commons at 6:30 Saturday evening.

Twenty Students Named To Who's Who in Colleges

Twenty CWCE seniors, ten women and ten men, were chosen to represent Central in this year's Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities by SGA Tuesday night.

The twenty were chosen from the student body on the basis of their excellence and sincerity in scholarship, participation in extra curricular activities; citizenship and service to their school and promise of future usefulness to society and business.

Besides these twenty, the names of five students, chosen on last year's list will automatically reappear in the publication. They are Connie Berg, Marion Lipsky, Helen Laysen, Janet Money and Bennet Castleberry.

The twenty chosen this year are Janet Smith, Alene Key, Nancy Hardy, Leona Panerio, Sue Ryan, Marian McCasland, Alice Searce, Nancy Rickert, Kathy Metcalf, Colleen Martin.

Rich Preston, Gepe Balint, Bill Bachman, Bruce Ferguson, Landon Estep, Rudy Kovacevich, Gene Fowler, Gordy Leavitt, Andy Setlow and Al Stevens.

SGA Council proposes and gives final approval to this list and it is also approved by the faculty. Although it is not necessary to be a senior to qualify for this honor, the Council preferred to name seniors first according to Bruce Ferguson, SGA president.

Dean Stinson 'Happy' With New Position

M. T. Stinson, Central's new dean of men, stated that he was "very happy at Central and am looking forward for a very pleasant year here."

Stinson was born and raised in Colorado. Stinson served also with the navy in 1942 through 1945. He graduated with a Bachelor Degree and a Master Degree from Colorado A&M. He also has a Doctor Degree from the Colorado State College of Education. While living in Colorado he was the Director of the Counseling Center.

Weekend Includes Various Activities to Honor Dads

A full round of activities will greet Central's fathers when they invade the campus today to register for the fifth annual Dad's Day. Under the supervision of co-chairmen Dorothy Barich and Jack Turner, a varied program has been planned for tomorrow.

"We hope that everyone here at Central will do their best to make the dads' stay most enjoyable," commented the co-chairmen. Over 400 dads are expected for the event, along with some mothers.

Housing for them will be provided in the mens' and womens' dorms.

Along with the 5:30 to 8:30 Friday registration in the CUB, the movie "Laura" will be shown in the College Auditorium at 7. It's Dana Andrews, Gene Tierney, and Clifton Webb.

Inter-Collegiate Knight and Spurs will handle Saturday registration, which will begin at 8 a.m. and last all day. At 10 a coffee hour will be held in the Union.

The Wildcats will challenge the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators on Rodeo Field at 2. Both teams will be striving for a win. (See sports page for further details.)

Dr. Dean Stinson, Central's new Dean of Men, will be principal speaker at the 6:30 banquet in the Commons. Charles Hazen will act as master of ceremonies. A steak dinner is being planned by the Commons cooking staff.

Spurs will sponsor the informal dance at 8 p.m. Saturday night. They have promised a half hour of excellent entertainment, plus refreshments.

CWCE Plans U. N. Week Observation

The founding of the United Nations will be celebrated on the Central campus next week. The 17th through the 24th of October has officially been designated as international - wide United Nations Week.

In commemoration of the United Nations' ninth birthday, the International Relations Club will exhibit displays of foreign coins and stamps, printed information distributed by the UN, raw materials of foreign origin and maps.

These exhibits will be posted in the Union, Classroom and Administration buildings where flags of the numerous UN members will fly in the corridors. Mobile displays hanging from the ceilings are also planned.

Expressing his wish that every student will feel invited to take an active part in United Nations Week, Dr. Elwyn Odell, a faculty advisor for the International Relations Club, states; "This week provides us with an opportunity for considering the place of the United Nations in mankind's search for peace.

"Although the UN has been besieged with difficulties and its weaknesses have at times been apparent, its successes so far deserve the thoughtful support of everyone who sincerely hopes for a stable world. In spite of its failures, the United Nations remains man's best hope for achieving the kind of world in which we all want to live."

'Laura' to Appear Tonight in Aud.

"Laura," tonight's SGA dime movie starring Dana Andrews, Gene Tierney and Clifton Webb, will begin at 7 p.m. in the College auditorium.

These movies are shown every Friday and Saturday, barring conflicting events, under the sponsorship of the SGA and are for college students and faculty members and their families. Children of the faculty must be accompanied by their parents to be admitted.

Dining Hall Committee Posts Seating Charts

Most students have signed one of the seating charts which are now up in the dining halls, but they probably don't realize that these charts are the result of some hard work on the part of the Dining Hall Committee.

This committee, advised by Miss Barbara Hoffman, director of dormitories, and Mrs. Annette Hitchcock, dean of women, is composed of one representative from each dorm and from the off-campus living groups.

They are planning entertainment for Wednesday night dress-up dinners and would welcome suggestions.

Ideas or constructive criticism of the dining halls are to be submitted to the representatives and the committee will give them full consideration.

Misfortune to Opportunity

Turning misfortune to opportunity is an old American custom. Central Washington College has special fondness for customs, especially the old American kind. And so it was natural, when word came from Olympia that a member of the budget committee stated that the committee would recommend closing one of the teacher's colleges and Central would be a likely one to close, that CWCE should proceed to turn this unfortunate remark into an opportunity.

As President McConnell said at assembly this summer quarter, we know that they will not close Central and so we are not worried about that, but rather we find in this statement an opportunity to make our good work here known throughout the state.

And that is just what his administration did. They speedily supplied all public opinion media with informaton about Central and let the facts speak for themselves.

And not only did that administration spread the word, but the surrounding communities took up the cry and soon petty differences and annoyances between college and community were lost in the "save the college" cry. Communities throughout eastern Washington joined and though now the danger is almost nil, word is still being received as a resolution passes an outlying PTA or Chamber of Commerce, commending Central on its good work and fine reputation.

Yes, the college, its administration and its community turned a gloomy situation to a cheery picture, found the silver lining in the cloud and won a lot of new friends and respect for Central Washington College of Education. There is no reason to doubt that this same judgment will not continue to win respect and friends for Central for years and years to come.

Sweecyville Begins Well

Pat yourself on the back, Miss, Mrs., and Mr. Sweecyite. You're off to a good start and this could be your finest year. Your campus-community has grown, with the addition of a fine group of immigrants from high schools throughout the Northwest. This new group is rapidly losing identity with their old communities and becoming enthusiastic citizens of Sweecyville. Your president and elected officials have your best interests at heart and are working sincerely to do what they feel is right for you and Sweecyville. Your buildings have been remodeled and you are adding new structures to your community, yet your financial burden is less than that of almost any other similar community. Your church groups, your service organizations, your residences are all off to a profitable year of service. Your social activities are successful and well received and there exists a friendly relationship among your citizens. Your citizens are active, intelligent and resourceful. Your communtiy is alive and bubbling, it is happy and prosperous. But remember, you can keep this community in its present happy condition only so long as you continue to support the governments which so provide you, both on a student and faculty level. Take an active stand to maintain the good start that Sweecyville can boast. You can do wonders, not just for Sweecy but for yourself. You have much to gain; you have only a little time and energy to lose. Join your fellow Sweecyites in actively supporting your governments and their agencies. Sweecyites . . . Arise!

Freshmen initiation was a success with only small casualties which could have been avoided with a little foresight. On the whole the dorms conducted themselves well and I am sure the freshmen will remember initiation as one of their most pleasant memories. They sure proved themselves to be good sports.

A special warm welcome on behalf of the SGA to the dads visiting our campus and a big bouquet of roses to the Dad's Day committee. The committee is doing a good job of organizing and with all the spirited freshmen helping, it should be a most enjoyable weekend.

I understand that the parking problem is still acute. I noticed cars from the prefabs lining the streets and that Munson men are hitch-hiking back to their dorm after parking their cars practically downtown. I want to assure you students who drive that I haven't forgotten my campaign pledge and as soon as Homecoming festivities are over I will devote my efforts to this problem.

This quarter if off to a good start with enthusiasm and spirit being displayed by almost all the students. Let's try to keep this spirit operating all year—we'll be a better college for it.

And lest I forget, best of luck to all of you! May this year at Central Washington be all that you hoped it would be.

Greetings students and hello to the other eleven hundred of you socializers. For those of you who are new this year may I say, "UngGuawa-wana, ingrosa intermetso add a dash of salt and serve." For those of you who are not acquainted with Southern Hindustani language the literal translation of this is, "Stop that dancing on the roof."

Physicals?

If you don't have a roof disregard the foregoing statement. It is nice to see that everyone survived the physicals. Did anyone discover they had six fingers? How strange! They did when I went through the physical.

I want to compliment the freshman girls on their stunning appearance during initiation week, especially at the Wednesday night mixer the first week. I always did like stripes down the middle of the face mingled with polka dot spots and form fitting beanies.

Jitterbug?

In case some of you haven't heard the dances won't always be held in the Administration Building gym. As soon as the floor in the men's gym is finished the dances will move over there. Of course it isn't too crowded in that little gym. While I was jitterbugging at the mixer the other night I happened to throw my partner out a little too far and the next thing I knew she disappeared in the mob. I stepped out for a cigarette and dropped back in about three dances later and met her coming around the floor. She hadn't lost a step. What a dancer!

I have a little statistic which might interest someone. Central car owners are lousing up the national statistics for the number of people per car. Instead of four people per car it is four cars per person around here.

she spread the news that the sky was falling and that it was all a nasty Capitalistic plot. Also implicated were Ducky Wucky, Horsey Worsey, Foxey Woxey and Hari Kari.

The following statement was released by Ho Chow Mien, Slobovian general. "This whole situation is fowled up."

Herodoteans Dine At Dr. Mohler's

Herodoteans were dinner guests in the Dr. Mohler home Tuesday evening, Oct. 5, for their first meeting of the year.

Plans and projects for the year were discussed. Public forums have been sponsored in previous years and are being considered for this year's program.

The club officers are: Joe Carter, president; Rich Preston, vice-president and social commissioner; Mabel Hatcher, secretary; Helen Layson, treasurer. Advisors are Mr. Barto and Dr. Mohler, CWCE social science faculty members.

Herodoteans, founded in 1923, is the oldest organization on the campus. Membership is obtained through invitation and is limited to persons doing superior work in the social sciences.

Herodoteans, incidently, is named for Herodotus, the great Greek historian.

Dr. Muzzall Advises December Graduates

Students who require less than one quarter of work for a bachelors' degree shall not be permitted to earn graduate credit for more work than the difference between the amount necessary to complete the requirements for the bachelor's degree and the amount considered a normal full-time program (15 credits).

Arrangements should be made with the registrar and director of graduate studies to ear-mark such courses at the time of registration, according to Dr. E. L. Muzzall, director of graduate studies.

Fall Social Activities Begin With Enthusiastic Crowds

"The experiment in establishing the office of SGA social commissioner is proving successful," according to Bruce Ferguson, SGA president. In previous years the vice-president has been responsible for all the social activities on campus as well as keeping track of the budget and performing his regular duties as vice-president.

Lou Richards, the first SGA social commissioner reports that "social activities at Central are off to a good start with a large and enthusiastic attendance at all functions."

The kick-off activity for the fall quarter social functions was the "Welcome Frosh" dance co-sponsored by PHREMMS and SGA in the men's gym Sept. 27.

Three days later the women's dormitories held progressive firesides. The old cafeteria, in the pre-fab area, was christened as a dance hall when Kennedy hall held their fireside in this student remodeled building.

The Saturday night all-college "Pep Mixer," co-sponsored by Sigma Tau Alpha and SGA, was held in the women's gym since the men's gym was being remodeled.

WEDNESDAY MIXERS BEGUN
The first regular Wednesday night mixer, held from 7-8 p.m. was sponsored by SGA. These mixers will be held weekly throughout the year under the sponsorship of various campus organizations.

A new loudspeaker system using the SGA loudspeaker and a high fidelity record played owned by John Grove of Alford Hall is largely responsible for the success of this year's record dances according to Richards. This system, used for the first time at Alford Hall's dance in the new dance hall last Friday night, will be available for use at dances by other organizations, Grove said.

FIRST SOCK HOP HELD
The first sock hop, the "Shoeless Shuffle" sponsored by Kamola Hall Saturday night in the women's gym, also made use of this system.

The second regular mixer, again sponsored by SGA was held Wednesday in the Women's gym.

Tonight's dance is being sponsored by the newly organizing Veterans Club.

Tomorrow night will see the annual "Dad's Dance" sponsored by Spurs in conjunction with the Dad's Day festivities.

"Although the dances have been very successful, I would like to see some organizations sponsor other social activities to give us a more rounded social program," Richards commented.

DANCES WELL UNDERWAY

"I believe the dances this year are well underway, although there are some problems yet to be worked out such as the lack of funds for the more expensive jive music. Most encouraging is the availability of better places to hold dances mostly due to the remodeling of the old cafeteria and of the men's gym. A system of diffused lighting for the dances, now in the experimental stages, should make them more enjoyable to the students.

"The SGA is anxious to hear of suggestions for improving the social program either from organizations or individuals, after all this program is for the students," Richards concluded.

Beginning the year 140 strong, the Central Singers are already looking forward to the first concert of the season, which will be held on December 5.

Director Christianson has been working out Central's band for the football shows, and the band also is beginning to prepare for the concert season.

Brass ensemble, under the leadership of Mr. Ross, which performed rather widely last year, has not yet completed selection of personnel.

Although no definite performance date has been announced, Mr. Bird's orchestra is being organized and rehearsed.

Cheer Leaders Chosen for Year

Sponsored by the Pep Club, an all-school assembly for choosing yell leaders and song leaders was held September 30 in the college auditorium at 6:30 p.m..

The following girls, all freshmen, were chosen for yell leaders: Margie Hendrickson, Joanne Almaden, and Floy Whitney. For song leaders — Jan Nelson, Donna Jenkins, Dorothy Dunn, and Patti Provine.

With funds appropriated by the SGA, new sweaters have been ordered, and they hope to have them here soon. The sweaters will cost approximately $16 apiece, and will be turned over to the SGA at the end of the athletic season.

The girls have been making preparations for the football game this Saturday with Pacific Lutheran College. They previously represented Central at the game here with Lewis and Clark, and also in Spokane when the team played Whitworth College.

Typewriting Clinic Planned for Saturday

An electric typewriting clinic sponsored by I. B. M. will be held here on the campus this Saturday, October 16, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the Business Education building. All equipment and supplies will be furnished by I. B. M.

Dr. Fred Winger, who is a member of the business education staff at Oregon State College and well known for his work in typewriting, will be the instructor.

This clinic is especially for business education teachers in this area and here on campus; business education majors are also urged to attend.

This is the first time such a clinic has been held here in Ellensburg and is an excellent opportunity for teachers to become acquainted with the electric machines which are rapidly becoming more popular in the schools.

Vet's Club Sponsors All College Dance

The Veteran's Club, one of the newer organizations, is sponsoring an all-college dance tonight in the Walnut Street cafeteria from 9 until 12 p.m.

The admission will be 50 cents a couple and 35 cents stag. The music will be live.

The club's officers are President, Wally Johnson; Vice-President, George Wolfe; Secretary-Treasurer, Peggy Northcutt; and Social Commissioner, Charlie Saas. Their advisor is Dr. Pettit.

The club has approximately 60 active members. Members plan to participate in homecoming and other college functions, including a Vets and vets friends rooting section at home games.

Work Progressing on Dorm, Bookstore, Courson Says

"Quicker service and better accommodations for our students is the purpose of the new bookstore and boys' dormitory" said business manager Kenneth Courson this week.

The bookstore is being erected directly behind the Air Science building and should be completed sometime around Christmas. It will fill a capacity of 4800 square feet, and will provide a store room for materials.

Students will be able to serve themselves and then pay a cashier after obtaining their merchandise. The space now occupied by the bookstore in the CUB will be used to enlarge the snack bar.

The boys' dormitory is being built near North Hall, and will be similar in size and plans. It will house approximately 100 men and will be completed in March.

These buildings which were started in August, are costing $367,000. They are being financed completely through CWCE bonds to which the students contribute. From the weekly $14.25 that the student pays for room and board, $1 is taken for the buildings funds. Through these funds, or bonds, any new dorms or other buildings that the board of directors deem necessary are built.

The past year remodeling was done on Sue Lombard Hall, Kamola Hall, and some of the other campus buildings.

State and local leaders of the Washington state PTA participated in a conference held October 15 at the College Elementary School. Attending the District 3, Region 6 conference were delegates from Kittitas, Klickitat and Yakima counties.

Lettermen Will Sell Programs Tomorrow At CWC-PLC Game

"School spirit has definitely taken a turn for the better here at Central," stated Jerry Jones, president of the "W" club.

Jones, in an impromptu interview last week also said, "I am tremendously proud of the student body as a whole. With their good attendance at the first home football game, they emphatically demonstrated that they are backing our athletic program 100 percent."

The tall lanky shortstop went on to say, "I believe it is a fine thing to maintain dorm loyalty in intramural programs and inter-dorm competition. But, when it comes to inter-college activities, we must give Central our wholehearted support."

On behalf of the lettermen's club Jerry also announced the first and only sale of football programs. They will be sold at the Dad's Day gridiron classic at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Rodeo Field. These programs will be similar to the type of programs which are used for athletic events at all major colleges.

Munson Formal Held on Friday

Munson Dining Hall was the scene of the annual Munson Formal last Friday evening. The dance is held each year on the last night of initiation in honor of the freshmen.

This year's affair had as a theme, Freshmen Follies. Nearly 50 couples attended the event which is open to Munsonites and their dates.

A new attraction of this year's formal was the contest between the freshmen to see who could get the most autographs of women on campus during initiation. This contest was won by Jerry Wenger. He had over 140 names and was given a plaque naming him "Bird Dog of Munson Hall."

At intermission a large cake was given to the freshmen by the upperclassmen. It was dedicated to the "Frosh of 1954." Chuck Urdahl, one of the freshmen, cut the cake, which was served with punch for refreshments.

Music was provided by the Harley Brumbaugh "Esquires."

PHREMMS Plan First Meeting Of School Year

PHREMMS will begin its second year on campus with a party next Tuesday. All returning and interested P. E., Health and Recreation majors and minors are welcome to the October 19 meeting at 8 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge of the cub.

"I extend an invitation to everyone interested in PHREMMS to make it a most successful year," Sally Brown, president said. Other officers at the council meeting were Bev Crumpacker, vice-president; Peggy Northcott, secretary; Darlene Brown, treasurer; and Anne Coulston, publicity chairman. Mrs. Alyce Cheska and Miss Peggy Gazette are advisors.

Plans for a homecoming float, the National P. E. convention, annual car wash project, and lectures were discussed at the officers' planning meeting.

Orientation Week Hectic But Fun

BY RAY STEBNER

Soft piano music, coffee and cookies and cordial welcomes from faculty members and old students comprised the scene which freshmen students and their parents were greeted with at the Student union building Sunday September 26.

This informal afternoon tea marked the opening of school for the freshman and the beginning of a hectic week of orientation meetings, physicals, written tests and general confusion for the new students.

From Monday through Wednesday the new students carried on registration procedures interspersed with hearing tests, physicals, and assemblies which produced the usual comments such as, "I'm healthy as a horse. Why should I have to take a physical."

"Could you tell me where the Union building is?"

"Boy, these psychological tests are for the birds."

"Man look at all the cute girls."

By Thursday most of the new students had registered and had happily collapsed in the dorms or the CUB while the upperclassmen proceeded to take their turn at registering for the new school year.

It was generally concluded by the freshmen that the trials and tribulations or orientation weren't so bad, and it was certainly different.

Girls Fill Honor Council Positions

Marie Fugate and Judy Grage have been named to temporarily fill the Honor Council posts left vacant by Janet Money and Sue Ryan who are practice teaching in Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Fugate and Miss Grage were appointed by the SGA council to fill these posts for fall quarter.

Juniors Select Brown as Prexy

Gary Brown will lead the Junior Class as president this year. Members of the '56 class recently met and discussed plans for a homecoming float and skit.

"We would like to start the tradition of a Junior Prom and are eager to have every junior participate and cooperate in activities," Jimmy Allen, secretary, said.

Other officers for the year are Barbara Self, vice-president; Charles Schmutz, treasurer, and social chairmen, Joann Green and Vic Olsen.

Pep Club Plans Year's Events

The Pep Club, a sophomore-freshman girls organization, held its first meeting of the year last Tuesday evening in Sue Lombard Hall.

Under the leadership of president Darlene Brown, plans were made to order sweaters for all members. Also discussed at the meeting was the possibility of forming a drill team to participate at Homecoming and other games.

Pom Poms have been ordered to sell to the student body for 25 cents each. The girls are also in the process of deciding whether or not they will make a Wildcat mascot for the student body.

The next meeting of the club will be held at Kennedy Hall on October 26 at 6:30 p.m. At this meeting, the rest of the year's officers will be elected. A welcome is extended to all sophomores and

MY POINT OF VIEW

Bill Leth
Sports Editor

As this is the first paper of the 1954-55 school year, I would like to tell you new students a little about the athletic system here at Central.

Leo S. Nicholson is the Director of Athletics here at Sweezy. Nicholson is also the head basketball coach and the tennis coach.

The head football coach is L. G. Carmody. Carmody is a Sweezy grad and was given little All-American honorable mention his senior year in football. "Clipper" Carmody also played in the East-West Shrine game in 1947.

Carmody is ably assisted by Del Peterson, Elwyn Odell and Bob Hibbard. Peterson was an all-conference guard at Western Washington College. Odell, a former Albion College gridder, is a Professor of Political Science at Central.

Battling Bob's Back

Hibbard, Central's offense smashing center last year, received honorable mention on the little All-American squad last year. He was also an all-conference choice the last three years.

Our baseball coach is an ex-probaseball player Warren Tappin, and our track team is well coached by Monty Reynolds.

The Men's Intramural Association is an organization set up for the non-varsity athletes here at Central. The MIA sponsors competition between the men's living groups in flagball, volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis and ping pong each year.

Each spring the Nicholson trophy is presented to the living group that compiles the most points in MIA competition. Munson hall won it last year with North hall taking it the two preceding years. Coach Tappin is directing the MIA this year.

The Women's Recreation Association is run on the same idea as the MIA each year. It is for the students that enjoy good clean sports. The three women's dorms compete against each other in the women's sports. They play basketball, volleyball, softball, badminton, and they even have a track meet in the spring.

Basketball Anyone?

Director of Athletics at Central, Leo Nicholson, announced last week that varsity basketball practice will start in the Evergreen Conference today, October 15. Central, being a member of the conference, will start organized practice in the gym this afternoon. The starting date of October 15, is a conference ruling.

Central has a tentative sched-

By ORVILLE BOYINGTON

The Central Wildcats have gone down to defeat three times in their three opening games this season. The contests have all been close, but bad breaks have made the difference most of the time.

In the season opener they dropped a thriller to the Whitman Missionaries at Walla Walla in the annual Shrine game. The final outcome was 14 to 0 but the teams played a closer game than the score indicates.

Walker Hits Paydirt

The Missionaries tallied both of their touchdowns in the first half.

One came with little more than a minute remaining in the first quarter when Earle Walker, hard driving halfback, climaxed a 70-yard drive with a six-yard jaunt to paydirt. The only other score of the game came late in the second quarter when halfback Dave Wheeler took the ball on a 54-yard romp down the sidelines to the end zone. The play came after a Central fumble.

Bill Harriman, junior quarterback was injured on the fifth play of the game and had to finish the contest on the bench. Bill Bieloh, freshman candidate for the field general post, filled in for him the rest of the contest. Dennis Anderson, standout junior end, was also injured in the game. He received a broken jaw.

ule of nine non-conference practice games and 12 conference battles. The season will start at Walla Walla on December 3, when the Cats meet Whitman College in a practice tilt.

The men's gym floor was sanded and refinished this fall in preparation for the approaching campaign. "The floor will be in excellent condition for the coming season" according to coach Nicholson. The gym is used for varsity practice, P.E., MIA and WRA as the college basketball games are played at the Morgan junior high school gym.

Rah, Rah, Munson

The men of Munson hall started the ball rolling this season to increase the school spirit by donating megaphones to the Central cheer leaders. One of the best ways to get behind our team is to get out and root for them at the games.

Central has two all-stars in the starting line up this season. Left tackle Fred Barber, out of Mt. Si high school and quarterback Bill Harriman, from Ferndale, received all-state honors in 1949 and 1952 respectively. Barber, a sophomore, spent two years in the army between high school and CWCE. Harriman, a very good field general, is a junior at Sweezy.

LC Edges Cats

In the Wildcats second venture on the gridiron, they lost a heart-breaker to the Lewis and Clark College Pioneers 14 to 13 in the first home game of the season.

The Portland team opened the scoring when Caley Cook, speedy halfback broke away on a pitch-out play that covered 18 yards and earned a touchdown. Lewis and Clark got their other TD in the second quarter after an intercepted pass had set up the play. Quarterback Ron Stampel, sneaked the ball over from the three yard line.

Bob Spearman, was the man to cross the goal line for Central in the second quarter. Larry Downey, sophomore guard, recovered a LC fumble on the Pioneer one-yard line. Spearman, a junior halfback then smashed over for the Cats and Harriman converted.

LC Fumble Costly

Another fumble set up the other Central touchdown in the third period. The Wildcats marched 34 yards to the one-yard line where Harriman took the ball over on a quarter back sneak.

The Wildcats came very close to pushing across another tilt with only seconds left in the contest but a series of plays on the one yard line failed to score.

Last Saturday the Wildcats turned in a fine performance against the Evergreen conference leading, Whitworth Pirates. The Pirates had a 15 to 6 advantage at the final gun.

The Whits were first to earn a mark on the scoreboard, when a bad pass from center went over the head of Harriman on the Wildcat ten-yard line and sailed out of the end zone for a safety.

The Pirates again reached paydirt just before the end of the first half when fullback Bob Ward threw 37 yards to end Bob Bradner on the 10-yard marker who then jogged into the end zone.

Harriman Shows Form

In the third period, Harriman unleashed a passing attack and the Wildcats marched to the Whitworth three-yard line where Clayton Evans went through the line for the only Central tally of the game.

The Whits got their second touchdown in the third period when Ward lateraled to Midge Wilkins on the Central 15-yard line and Wilkins went into the end zone for the final score of the contest.

The Wildcats are the first team to score against the rugged Whitworths this season. Harriman turned in an excellent passing game by throwing most of Central's 14 completions. The Cats threw only 21 times in the contest. Wilbur Lucas, a freshman end, did a fine job at the wing spot by being on the receiving end of Harriman's throws most of the time.

Students Needed For Play Production Crew

Mr. Howell wishes to have all students who would be willing to work on the production crews of the college play, On Borrowed Time, to see him at once in his office, A-405, for crew assignments.

Alphie Knutson Wildcat Center

Central's only senior on the football team, Alphie Knutson, is the man in the sports spotlight this week.

Being the only letterman at center, Alphie will see a lot of action this season. Alphie has been hampered with a sore shoulder part of the season. He lettered at center two years ago but was ineligible last year.

When Central is on the defense, Alphie can be found as a line backer. He can be recognized by his big white "38" on his red jersey.

Alphie is a 5 foot 9 inch, 195 pounder from Stanwood. He played football, basketball and baseball at Twin City high school. His team went to the State Class B Basketball Tournament at Tacoma his junior year.

Alphie is scheduled to graduate next June with the class of '55 as an education major. He is interested in math and sports and he will have a major in math and a minor in health and physical education when he graduates.

When asked about his plans after he graduates, Alphie said, "I will probably except my Uncle Sam's offer of a job, as a private in the U.S. Army."

Central Squad Led By 15 Lettermen

Several Frosh Show Promise On Cat Squad

With fifteen returning lettermen, several outstanding transfers, and a pretty fair crop of freshmen, coach L. G. "Clipper" Carmody's 1954 edition of Wildcat footballers, has the potential of becoming one of the best teams to represent Central in several years.

Directing the Central offense is veteran quarterback Bill Harriman. Bill is a two year letterman and a former all-stater from Ferndale. Backing him up is Bill Bieloh, a freshman from Ellensburg.

Two year lettermen Don Trombley and Don Pierce and one striper Bob Spearman are battling for starting roles at the halfback slots.

Trombley and Pierce are on the small side as football players go but both are fast and shifty. Pierce, the fastest man on the team, is a good kicker and also does some passing.

Clayton Evans, former Renton star, who transferred here from the University of Washington seems to have the fullback position sewed up. Spearman is also being figured for some work at this spot.

Frosh Lee Foster from Vancouver and Jimmy Nelson from Ballard high in Seattle, give added depth at halfback. Both have shown well in early games.

Except for a glaring weakness at center, line coach Del Peterson has a good depth of experienced capable linemen.

Lettermen Denny Anderson and Jerry Tilton have been the starting ends. Anderson suffered a jaw injury in the Whitman game and was replaced by freshman Wilbur Lucas from Auburn. Lucas played an excellent game against Lewis and Clark College two weeks ago.

Other end candidates are freshmen Don Iverson, Wayne Roe, Ira Jensen, Don Standley and Doyle Jensen; sophomore Jim Hanson; and junior Jack Dickinson, a converted back.

Veterans Don Lyall, Bill Barber, John Startzel and Earl Jensen provide plenty of depth at tackle. Lyall and Barber seem to have a slight edge at this position.

Startzel, a junior from Grandview, has been sidelined with a knee injury this season.

Jensen lettered at PLC before entering the armed forces.

Peterson has lettermen Larry Downey, George Argelan and Van Morgan returning at the guard position. Bruce Zeller, who didn't letter last year, has come along fast and has been pushing these three for a starting berth.

Frosh Jerry Mefford from Richland is also showing up well, may see some action at tackle this season.

Alphie Knutson, a one year letterman, from Twin City high school, draws the starting center nod. Dale Lanigan, a promising freshman from Goldendale, is the only other candidate for center.

Pigskin Picks

First I predict Central over Pacific Lutheran. The Cats have the horse power to score at least twice as has PLC, but the Cats should have an edge on the points after touchdowns. Score, CWC 14 — PLC 12.

My second prediction is Whitman over Eastern. This is a non-conference tilt at Cheney. Whitman's Earl Walker should prove too much for the Savages. Score 20-14, Whitman's favor.

My guess is that UBC will come through with their first win of the season tomorrow by beating Western at Vancouver. A home crowd should cheer UBC on to a 26-13 victory.

This last one is a toughy, CPS over Whitworth. I may be sawing the limb off behind me, but I think Dale Meske and company will edge Bob Ward and the boys 21-19 at Tacoma tomorrow.

Wildcats, Gladiators Clash At Cow Palace Tomorrow

EVERGREEN CONFERENCE

Whitworth	2	0	48	6
CPS	2	0	51	0
PLC	1	0	6	0
Eastern	1	1	13	24
Central	0	1	6	15
UBC	0	2	6	19
Western	0	2	0	66

Flying footballs will be the order of the day tomorrow afternoon when Coach L. G. Carmody's Central Wildcats tackle the Gladiators of Pacific Lutheran in the annual Dad's day classic at 2 p.m. at Ellensburg's Cow Palace.

The Cats will be relying on the passing of Quarterback Billy Harriman, who made good 14 out of 20 passes last Saturday against Whitworth. Ends Wilbur Lucas, Denny Anderson and Jerry Tilton offer Harriman the targets to get the ball past the rugged Lute line.

Pacific Lutheran upset Pacific University 26 to 16 last Saturday after dropping a 7 to 6 decision to powerful CPS and squeaking past lowly British Columbia 6 to 0. Last year PLC finished fourth in the Evergreen conference. They downed the Wildcats 7 to 6 in Tacoma. In 1952 a power-laden Lutheran eleven dumped Central 45 to 3 to spoil a Sweezy Homecoming.

Central will be shooting for its first win of the 1954 season after dropping its opener to Whitman 14 to 0, sending Lewis and Clark home glad to salvage a 14 to 13 margin and showing defensive and passing power to Whitworth before losing 15 to 6.

PLC has a hard-hitting backfield paced by Captain Frank Lancaster, 190 pounds of fullback. Seat-back Tommy Campbell at 5-6 and 145 pounds and Quarterback Jerry Benson at 185 give the Lutes great scoring potential, although they haven't recorded many touchdowns so far this year.

Coach Carmody is expected to start Harriman at quarter, Clayton Evans at full, Bobby Spearman at one half and either Don Trombley or last year's leading ground-gainer Don Pierce at the other half back spot.

At the end spots Central will have Lucas, Anderson and Tilton working into the lineup. Captain Don Lyall and Earl Jensen get the nod at tackles. George Argelan, Van Morgan, Larry Downey and Bruce Zeller take turns as guards and Alfie Knudson snaps the ball at center.

WRA Volleyball Turnouts Set For Next Week

Volleyball turnouts, a social meeting and a float for the Homecoming parade were the main topics of discussion at the Women's Recreation Association Council meeting held on October 5.

Volleyball turnouts will begin as soon as the remodeling of the gym is completed. Turnouts will be held every Monday and Thursday evening at 6:45.

All girls interested in WRA are invited to the social meeting to be held October 14, whether or not they are P. E. majors or minors. Initiation for all new members will be held sometime in November. Membership pins may be given this year.

"Last year was a successful year and in view of the prospects for new girls and our officers we are looking forward to even a better year," said President LaVerne Roberts.

Other WRA officers are: Olive Wilbur, vice-president and treasurer; Helen Argus, secretary; Beverly Crumacker, sports manager; Dorothy Barrich, social commissioner and Darlene Powlak, publicity manager.

Rules Changed In MIA Flagball

The men's intramural association held its first meeting under the direction of head baseball coach Warren Tappin Jr.

Present at the meeting were: Steve Brady, Montgomery; Walt Wilson and Gene Dudley, North hall; Paul Guay, Munson; Dick Bird, Munro; Dick Scott, Carmody and Bill Harriman, W-Club. Also attending the meeting were Walt McGahuey, Earl Ungerecht, Harold Malcolm and Bob Trask, who will serve as officials during the coming flagball season.

At the meeting all rules of flagball football were gone over and the following changes were made:

1. In order to participate the players must have their names on the team roster, which have to be turned in by today.
2. Anyone turning out for football, plus anyone who has lettered in college football, is not allowed to participate.
3. Players must live in the living group they represent.

Because of the different interpretations of the rules a three man appeal board was set up composed of Tappin, Wilson, and Trask. This board will weigh all protests of games and its decisions will be final.

Two leagues were set up, the

CES Stresses Activities; Kids Work on Newspaper

Amanda Hebeler, principal of the College Elementary School is a busy person.

So are the faculty, student teachers (twelve this quarter) and busiest of all, the students themselves. There are 222 children enrolled in the school this quarter.

Their yearly curriculum consists not only of learning the 3 R's, but also knowledge of such things as how to get along with each other, leadership, music appreciation, health, outdoor participation, and many other extra curricular activities that go together in building well-rounded, interesting personalities.

This year the sixth grade is publishing the "C.E.S. Reporter," a bi-weekly (or monthly—it all depends) newspaper for which the students gather material, and write themselves.

The editor is an ambitious boy by the name of Harold Williams. Harold was chosen by the 29 other members of his class to edit and give his "stamp of approval" on the work of his reporters.

The articles run from a story on prized butterflys from New Guinea, to what a big bump Suzie got when she fell down last week. All school functions are covered, and all phases of classroom activity.

In addition to this, the student may write about any interesting experience he has had, or something that he has seen. Harold and his assistant, Barbara Schnebly, check over the stories that are turned in by the class, make corrections and turn them over to their teacher, Miss Hammill. She in turn makes additional corrections and gives them back to the reporter who writes the corrected article on a clean (and as Harold says "more expensive") piece of paper.

Harold or Barbara then take the article to the office where it is typed. The typewritten article is sent back to the editor who puts it on a "dummy" sheet. The dummy sheet is sent back to the office and dittoed.

The pages are stapled together in the last step of publication, and then sold to the rest of the students in the school for five cents a copy. This sounds like a complicated project for sixth graders, but the work is done efficiently and in a well-planned manner, designated to give each member of the class some job.

Teaching today places a large emphasis on social development and responsibilities in the schooling of elementary age children. In our next issue, additional stages of these activities will be brought forward.

American and the National, with a playoff to decide the champion. Opening kick-off for the season will be October 19 when two games will be played. There will be eight games a week played on Monday through Thursday.

MIA meetings will be held on every other Tuesday at 7:15 in room 201 in the gym. A special meeting will be held on Tuesday October 18, to draw up the schedule and to place teams in their respective leagues.

An officials meeting will be held following the MIA meeting to discuss paying of officials and rule interpretations. All men who have had previous refereeing experience are asked to attend.

New Photo Lab Nearly Finished

"The remodeling of the old science laboratory into a photographic laboratory will be completed in two weeks time," stated Associate Professor Hogue of the Industrial Arts Department.

Students will find that the new addition has everything in the way of convenience and modern equipment. Individual lockers and an extra large developing room are just two of the many features.

The laboratory will be finished in birch and stainless steel.

The department has quite a large enrollment this quarter and expects to be compelled to limit the enrollment in the future.
